"Personally I am most impressed by the CESSDA Data Catalogue, 40,000 datasets from different countries, different languages, different societies on so many different societal questions, so I think this is the most exciting data asset of CESSDA."

"On using the CESSDA Data Catalogue "I would say this is a very rich and versatile collection and one of the concrete examples that I would mention is... the International Social Survey Program on National Identity, which is a very comprehensive data set. It involves data from a variety of different countries, including areas that belong to what might be called East Asia, so Japan and China for example."

"For Norway as for all the other partners and future partners of CESSDA I think CESSDA will keep providing tools, services, training for sharing, for reuse of data, for sustainability of services. It will be a key player in the implementation of FAIR principles."
